

About Me

Description

I've traveled extensively, both as a child and in my professional career. I have a global view of the world and the situations we currently face as a nation. Between some practical experiences, lots of reading and some time sitting in classrooms/lecture halls, I have opinions that I will share here.

Category

1. Uncategorized

Date Created

February 14, 2006

Author

admin

default watermark