A Poem of Tribute to the Fallen

Description

They fought so that others may live That destitute nations be free.

They sacrificed the very things That stand for democracy.

They lost their lives heroically That war and suffering would cease.

God bless them all and may their souls Forever rest in peace.

I found this on the home page of Museum of the Soldier.

It fits the men and woman of the soldier.

Category

- 1. Military
- 2. Supporting the Troops

Date Created January 1, 2006 Author